

I believe the showing of "Stolen Honor" is a partisan abuse of Sinclair's position as a broadcaster on public airwaves. Its timing is calculated to try to affect the outcome of the presidential election and is part of a pattern of partisan activity on Sinclair's part. Public airwaves should never be used to push a political agenda. worse still are the slanderous allegations posing as news.